

THE V-A-S-E.

From the madding crowd they stand apart,
The maidens four and the work of Art;
And none might tell from sight alone
In which had Culture ripest grown—
The Gotham Million fair to see,
The Philadelphia Pedigree,
The Boston Mind of azure hue,
Or the soulful Soul from Kalamazoo—
For all loved Art in a seemly way,
With an earnest soul and a capital A.
Long they worshipped; but no one broke
The sacred stillness, until up spoke
The Western one from the nameless place,
Who, blushing, said: "What a lovely vase."
Over three faces a sad smile flew.

And they edged away from Kalamazoo.
But Gotham's haughty soul was stirred
To crush the stranger with one small word.
Deftly hiding reproof in praise,
She cries: "'Tis, indeed, a lovely vase!"
But brief her unworthy triumph, when
The lofty one from the house of Penn,
With a condescension of two grandpas,
Exclaims: "It is quite a lovely vase!"
And glances round with an anxious thrill,
Awaiting the word of Beacon Hill.
But the Boston maid smiles courteous,
And gently murmurs: "Oh, pardon me!
I did not catch your remark, because
I was so entranced with that charming vase!"

Three Eyes

Cannot, possibly, be found exactly alike in every particular. Especially is this true of defective eyes—eyes needing glasses. Even a different measurement in the two eyes is quite common. One eye may be perfect and the other short-sighted; or they may have different degrees of the same defect, or a different defect.

Is it any wonder then, you "have never found a glass you could see through?" Try us—we'll find you a glass if you need it; if not we'll tell you so.

'FRISCO IN JAP HANDS
Oahu Brown Men Cause Alarm on Coast.
LABOR UNIONS ARE AGITATED

Steering Passengers of the China Cannot Be Stopped by Law.

(Special to The Advertiser.)

SAN FRANCISCO, June 28.—One might have thought oneself at the Honolulu railroad station when the steamship China unloaded her passengers at the Pacific Mail Company wharf yesterday. There were Japanese on every side. A couple of hundred Japanese came down the gangplank of the vessel while half as many more met them and escorted them to boarding houses in this city.

The Examiner says that the Japanese are going to Hawaii from Japan by the hundreds, and with the intention of coming here from Honolulu, after a brief stay in the Islands. The Examiner says:

"More than 200 Japanese arrived yesterday in the steamer of the steamer China. They came from Honolulu and the Hawaiian Islands, where they have been working on the plantations. This influx of coolie labor from the Hawaiian Islands is alarming the immigration authorities, but they state that they are powerless to stem the tide. Late steamers from the Orient have brought hundreds of Japanese, who come here from the Hawaiian Islands. The immigration officials are unable to deny the Asiatics landing because of their coming from a port of the United States."

The influx of Japanese here is agitating the labor unions, and plans are being made to fight the invasion. Today a bill was introduced into Congress by Representative Robinson of Indiana, a Democrat, providing for the exclusion of Japanese laborers from the United States. His bill will have all the Chinese exclusion law, and while meeting the views of the masses on the mainland, would be very detrimental to Hawaii's interests, as it would deprive Hawaii of its present chief source of labor. It would prevent the landing in the Islands of a single Japanese plantation laborer. This bill is being pushed by the American Federation of Labor.

The following from the Fresno Republican, published in the center of the great raisin and deciduous fruit district of the San Joaquin valley, gives the attitude and expectations of the farmers and the Japanese in the matter of importing the crop:

"The reports from all over the state that labor is so scarce this year that it is feared there will be difficulty in handling the fruit crop, has set Fresno people to wondering just how this country will be affected. In previous years while the same cry has invariably been raised, there have always been enough people on hand to handle all the fruit. But there has been some apprehension felt because of the fact that the usual influx of Chinamen and Japanese into this city during the months of May and June has not yet commenced, and in spite of the cry that is made against the employment of Asiatic labor, the Chinese and Japanese are considered essential to take care of the crop."

Each year there are at least 3000 Chinamen in Fresno that remain here only while the fruit and grape picking season lasts. These men come from all over the state, being employed in the north in the early spring caring for the early fruit crops, and coming here just at the opening of the season. They are good workers and are usually satisfactory. During the past two or three years the number of Japanese coming here each year has gradually grown larger. Last year, according to the priests in charge of the Buddhist mission, there were 3000 of the "little brown men" in the country. They are a different class from the Chinese, being for a great part school boys from San Francisco, who occupy all their time in the summer vacation doing ranch work. But there are lots of men among them, too, who come from the north, and very many who come from Southern California, where they have been employed in handling the orange crops during the spring.

There is still plenty of time for the men to come here to handle this year's crop, and, according to those best in position to know, there will be plenty of Japanese and Chinese labor here this year; more, in fact, than there was last year. Well-known Chinamen say there will be as many Chinese as ever. R. Tsuchiya, agent here for the New World, a San Francisco Japanese newspaper, who has a branch office at No. 1206 Kern street, said yesterday to a Republican reporter that this year fully 5000 Japanese are expected. They will commence to arrive during July and contracts for their employment will soon be made.

FREDERICK O'BRIEN.

POLICEMAN CAPTURES JAP AND HIS KNIFE.

Officers had to use all his strength to force the man along.
At the police station the Japanese said that he had only been playing with a baby during the evening and was in the act of paring an apple for the child when the officer came. He heard the noise of people coming up the stairs and merely came out on the veranda to see what was going on. He still held the knife in his hand, and of course the officer found it there when he took hold of him. He denied that he had threatened to take the life of Ah Tong.
